

14 December 2020

Dear Parent / Carer,

We have some important information regarding new developments for Akroydon within Trinity Multi-Academy Trust (MAT).

From January 2021, the trust will be bringing all our academies together under the Trinity MAT name. Therefore, Akroydon Primary Academy will change its name to Trinity Academy Akroydon. The trust recognises that each academy is a unique part of its local community, with its own distinct character and culture and it is important that each academy retains this. By including 'Trinity Academy' in all our academies' names, we are communicating that we are a family of schools who work together with the shared aim that all the young people in our care fulfil their potential.

Already part of the wider organisation, Akroydon benefits from the excellent resources and support Trinity MAT has to offer, from investment in our pupils and staff, to improvements in our school buildings, all contributing to the best educational provision for your child(ren).

The school logo will change slightly to incorporate the new name, and therefore some uniform items will also be updated, however, this won't be introduced until the start of Autumn term, from September 2021. More information will follow with regard to uniform.

We are sure you will have some questions on this so have included an information page with FAQs on the website <https://akroydon.trinitymat.org/> and as always you can contact the school in the usual way with any queries.

We hope you will embrace this change and we look forward to taking Akroydon through the next stage of its journey within Trinity Multi-Academy Trust.

Yours faithfully,

Annie McNally
Principal
