Transition day

On Monday, pupils from across school spent the day with their new class teachers and in their classrooms ahead of September. Each year, we select a text and the whole school create work around this stimulus. Our book was 'The Lost Words' and the children enjoyed exploring the natural environment around them and creating poems or spells about what they found.

The Gruffalo

This week, Tracey Hamer, who began her teaching career at the school, kindly donated a Gruffalo, a Gruffalo's child and a little brown mouse ahead of our Reception transitions. The new additions are settling well in our reading area and looking forward to meeting our new children on Monday.

New Reception open evening

On Tuesday, we welcomed our new Reception cohort and their grown-ups to an information evening. It was lovely to meet our new families and hand out their book bags and the first book in the collection they'll build during their time with us.

We can't wait for Monday, when children are coming to see their new classroom and meet their new friends.
